

Bad JuJu: Cleveland's Premier '90s Rock Experience

Embark on a nostalgic journey with Bad JuJu, Cleveland's celebrated '90's rock tribute that has been reviving the essence of '90s music since their formation in 2017. Known for their electric performances and authentic renditions of the decade's most iconic hits, Bad JuJu captures the spirit of an era that changed the face of music.

The Lineup: A Quartet of Rock Virtuosos

Chad Moon (Vocals): Awarded the Cleveland Music Award for Best Male Vocalist in 2023, Chad's powerful voice is the cornerstone of Bad JuJu's dynamic sound.

Dennis Davis (Guitar): Dennis' masterful guitar play provides the melodic backbone, driving each song with passion and precision.

Steve Kovacs (Bass): With his deep and resonant bass lines, Steve lays the rhythmic foundation, creating the heartbeat of the band's music.

Chuck Schilling (Drums): Chuck's energetic drumming completes the ensemble, delivering rhythms that energize their '90s rock renditions.

A Legacy of Rock and Recognition

Since their inception in 2017, Bad JuJu has risen to prominence in the local music scene, culminating in winning the Cleveland Music Award for Best Cover Band in 2022. Their journey reflects a deep dedication to the genre and a commitment to excellence in performance.

Musical Journey and Influences

Influenced by '90s rock legends like Nirvana, Pearl Jam, and Green Day, Bad JuJu's performances are more than just concerts; they are time capsules that transport audiences back to a groundbreaking era of music.

Continuing the Legacy

Today, Bad JuJu remains at the forefront of the Cleveland rock scene, captivating audiences with their spirited renditions and raw energy. Their evolving setlists and growing fanbase are a testament to their status as more than just a cover band; they are the living embodiment of the '90s rock spirit.
